

If peace was a flower,
I wish the world was full of gardens.
If peace was water,
I wish Earth was made of rivers.
If peace was a star,
I wish skies were made of constellations.
If peace was the sun,
I wish it was always day.
If peace was a word,
I wish the world was a giant library.
If peace was a wish,
I would turn the world into a wishing wheel.
